

Lake County Counselors Association

A Chapter of the Illinois Counseling Association

The best reasons to be a member of LCCA:

- Fall and Spring workshops covering relevant topics for school counselors
- Annual conference in May
- Networking Social in January
- College tours twice a year
- CPDU's given for workshops, college tours and the annual conference
- Becoming familiar with issues/concerns occurring throughout the county
- Creating lasting professional relationships